SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

One day while leisurely lying on the couch waiting for Dan to come home from work, I picked up my annual of '47. Gee! It was really swell to see the pictures of the old gang and to think of them now as happy, busy people with all their dreams come true.

While looking through the annual, who should come in but my old friend from early childhood, Nell Allen. Nell was happily married to Bill Weiser and the mother of twin daughters. Nell and I began talking like old friends do. She told me about a new beauty parlor which was opening on Third Street. Who were the owners other than the Shrader sisters, Mary Lee and Hazel. They had made quite a name for themselves as leading beauticians. Hazel Bostic, an old friend of theirs was also in business with them. Some of the others now were in business also. Pete Henly and Don Whitworth, after completing their course at Cincinnati School of Embalming, had come back to the old town to practice.

We turned on the radio and we immediately recognized Wally Rangeo as the announcer. The program for the night included piano solos by Martha Mitchell, Wanda Sluss, Betty Hrametz, and David Skewes. The vocal solos were by Virginia Thomas and John Shupe. Wally reminded the listeners not to miss the next program which included John Kovacs, James Baker, Joe Griffith, and Don Wolfe.

We decided to go to a movie that night. Imagine our surprise when Randall Matson appeared on the screen as "The Whistler"!!! The picture was directed by Bill Wall and produced by Billie Gullion. An exciting western was also on, starring Mickey Jones in "Jesse James Returns".

We went to a nice cafe after the movie to get a sandwich. Whom should we see but Kat Sutherland. She and her husband were proud owners of the place. Each night two famous dancers appear. That night two of our old classmates were to appear. They were none other than Joyce Wagner and Bill Levay. After the show we talked to Joyce and Bill. Joyce said Bessie Griffith was now an English teacher at old Poca High. Edna Bowling, Joan Jennings, and Mary Ellen Mullin were also teaching in leading high schools. Grace Harald and Hazel Hylton had remained together and were now coaches of the very successful girls' basketball team at Poca. Bill interrupted long enough to say Frank Mullin and Eugene French had also trained to be basketball coaches, but did not know where they were now coaching. We talked a long time and then bade Joyce and Bill good-bye.

The next day Nell and I went to pay our family insurance. Rudy Kaba was now president of the firm and Margaret Satmary was his associate. While there Rudy took us to a very large room where a group of girls were busy working. We recognized among the group Carolyn Sayko, Dorcas Hale, Peggy Gentry, Ruth Perry, Joyce Arrington, and Betty Franklin, all old schoolmates of ours. We learned from them that Nick Lotito, Alfred Lively, and Bill Thompson were leading doctors in the new Parkway Hospital in Pocahontas. The nurses' staff was noted for its excellence and helpfulness. Janice Wright was the superintendent of nurses and under her were Hope Hurst, Virginia Lee Billips, Ruby Lively, and Ann Stoker. Priscilla Hudson had gone to Lewis-Gale Hospital in Roanoke to work in the lab.

On our way home, Hal Butt stopped in his famous car from high school days and offered to drive us home. Hal was now one of our neighbors.

We could hardly wait to tell Dan and Bill of our day's adventure and learning about our old classmates of '47.

CLEDA MASON, Prophet.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1947, do make, publish and declare this is our last will and testament:

To the faculty, we bequeath appreciation for a task well done.

To the incoming Freshmen, we leave some of the beams of our radiant faces so there will be some brightness in the school.

To the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes of "48" we bequeath our ability to learn.

I, Peggy Gentry, do will my wit to Jack Drasko.

I, Mary Lee Shrader, do leave my cosmetics to Beulah Ward.

I, Joyce Arrington, joyfully will my typing ability to June Davidson.

I, Janice Wright, do will to Polly Hendricks, my hair styles and Edgar.

I, Edna Bowling, do leave to Paul Brewster, my personality.

I, Ruth Perry, do leave with pleasure all of my Graham boys to Anna Leigh Nagy.

I, John Kovacs, do will nothing to nobody because I need all I got.

I, Ann Stoker, leave behind my blue plaid shirt for Dottie Carter.

I, Ruby Lively, would like to leave Cecil Smith to the girls but find it impossible.

Hazel Hylton says, "I just ain't got nothing to leave."

I, Joan Jennings, do will my mischievousness and love of humor to Phyllis Ranger.

I, Grace Harald, do leave the oil in my hair to the Standard Oil Company.

I, Mary Ellen Mullin, will to Dorothy Patterson my job as Beta President.

I, Virginia Lee Billips, will to Jackie Young my title as "Biggest Flirt."

I, Randall Matson, do leave to "Bussie" Gravely my bird's seed and whistling ability.

We, Joyce Wagner and Bessie Griffith leave to Joyce McCloud and Peggy Wells our bobbie socks and good times.

I, Dorcas Hale, do will to Louise Goodwin my dimples.

I, Carolyn Sayko, bequeath my giggles to Phyllis Wall.

I, Pete Henly, will to Eugene Davidson my popularity.

I, Wanda Sluss, do will all of my nice ways to Rita Mustard.

I, Hope Hurst, leave my "quiet ways" to Mae Cochran.

I, Eugene French, do will my "blue eyes" to all of the girls.

I, Frank Mullin, do will my way with the girls to James Robinette.

I, Virginia Thomas, will to Anna Rinchick my singing ability.

I, Rudolph Kaba will to my brother, an incoming Freshman, a better high school career than the one I had.

I, John Shupe, do will all of my women to Harpo.

I, Wally Rangeo, do will my dressing ability to Arnold Potter.

I, James Baker, do will my class ring to Hazel Thomas along with a ball of string.

I, Betty Hrametz, bequeath to Ruth Odom, my music ability.

I, Bill Levay, do leave my dancing ability to all of the Junior class boys.

I, Donald Whitworth, do will all I got to myself because I'll need it next year.

We, Bill Thompson and Bill Wall, would like to leave our football ability to Charles Gilmore and Tommy Welch.

I, Mickey Jones, do leave to George Carter my capbuster and last roll of caps.

We, Nell Allen and Cleda Mason, do will all of our love to Bill and Dan.

I, Priscilla Hudson, do will my red hair to June Dudley.

I, Joe Griffith, do will my 52-20 checks to Joe Greenberg.

I, Don Wolfe, do will my spelling ability to Bill Miller.

We, Martha Mitchell and Hal Butt, bequeath our ability to make friends to everyone.

I, Nick Lotito, do will my wavy hair to James Leister.

I, Tommy Shrader, do will to Bill Milliner, my "pretty" legs.

I, David Skewes, do will my music books to Jack Hurley.

I, Catherine Sutherland, do will my basketball ability to Susie Savko.

I, Margaret Satmary, do leave my three V's—vim, vigor and vitality—to Leona Lewis.

I, Alfred Lively, do leave to Ray Robinette, my English and history books.

We, Hazel Shrader and Hazel Bostic, do leave our high school memories to Pocahontas High.

I, Betty Franklin, do will to anyone who wants them, my records and sheet music.

I, Billie Gullion, will my typing grades to Oid Mayberry.

Signed, published, and declared by the above named as their last will and testament.

Witnessed by CLEDA MASON.

Dear Phyllis,
Since my man
is in his book,
I'd just have my name for memory's sake. You won't forget the dead lines I set for you.

Dear Phyllis,

May happiness always be yours in the future as it has in the past, and don't ever forget our "dreams," "talks," and
"times" together in Past Years, and I sure won't ever forget you in a lifetime.

Dear Phyllis

I think you are one of the prettiest girls at this school ever though you do have a mustache
